Instruction for Exam Registration:

1. Exam Registration form (available on website) will be filled by the Regular Students with backlog courses and Ex-Students manually.
2. Students should pay Examination fee online, the link is given on institute website for online payment: <http://gpmumbai.ac.in> under ONLINE FEE PAYMENT option. After the successful transaction, take the printout of receipt in which student enrollment number, name and amount is included and submit to concern Department along with exam registration form.
3. Concerned staff will check the form for its correctness and eligibility of the candidate for course and exam registration as per rules and sign on the form along with online fee receipt attached. Registration for regular and backlog courses for exam should be checked scrupulously by the concerned staff as per teaching and examination scheme approved by PBOS.
4. Supporting staff of the department will mark the form with signature stamp or department stamp of HOD.

5. Concerned supporting/teaching staff as assigned by the HOD will make online entries of the exam registration.

All the above activity will be carried out in the respective department on the scheduled dates. HOD will make necessary arrangement.

All the concerned students are required to take a note of it
