EXAMINATION CELL

Outword No.:GPM/10.09/2017/02

Date : 2 JAN 2018

CIRCULAR

As per the Rule AR 41 of the Code of Conduct for Examination Cell

“Marks will be condoned upto not more than 05 marks in aggregate for students only to complete diploma for not more than two heads, theory and/or practical including oral covering not more than two subjects. This condonation will be given to the student only if he/she has secured 60% in diploma award courses. The total number of marks secured by such candidate will remain unaltered and CON will be shown against his/her result in Final Marksheet. CON will not be mentioned in the diploma certificate. However if a student does not wish to avail the benefits of condonation, he/she shall have to obtain written permission from the Principal, prior to examination only. Any such request after the commencement of examination shall not be considered.

OR

A Candidate who fails to pass an examination by not more than 10 marks in aggregate in not more than two heads, theory and /or practical including oral covering not more than two subjects, such deficiency in marks, would be condoned provided the candidate has secured at least 50% marks in aggregate and has not availed of exemption mentioned in AR-7

A candidate whose failure is thus condoned would be eligible for award of class on par with other successful candidates. The total number of marks secured by such candidates would however remain unaltered and “CON” (meaning Condonation) would be shown against his result in the certificate of marks. However, “CON” will not be mentioned in the Diploma Certificate.

However, if any candidate does not wish to avail the benefit of Condonation, he shall have to obtain written permission from the Principal, applying prior to examination only. Any such request after the commencement of examination shall not be considered.”

The students who are eligible for availing the condonation as per above rule but donot want to take advantage of this rule should take prior permission of the principal before to filling up of examination form. The last date for receiving the application will be 7th February 2018.

The heads of the Department are informed herewith to verify the data and convey the rule to such students before they apply for verification so that unnecessary efforts will be saved.

The circular will also be placed on notice board of each department so that the students will also take notice of this rule and seek guidance of the department.
